VOL. CXXXIV.—No. 101. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 1918. PRICE ONE CENT.

TOTAL OF LIBERTY BOND SALES HERE AMOUNT TO $265,000 THIS MORNING

Three Hundred Persons Bought Bonds Yesterday in Alexandria—Honor Roll Growing Daily—It is Hoped the City's Entire Allotment Will be Disposed of by Tonight.

Liberty bonds are selling like the proverbial hot cakes in Alexandria. Three hundred persons bought bonds yesterday, and the total number of buyers has reached nearly 1,000. Alexandrians are "going over the top" for Uncle Sam. The cry of the nation for 15,000,000 bond buyers will be heeded if the other cities of the nation do in proportion what Alexandria appears to be doing.

The Honor Roll at the Allen drug store is growing daily, and will soon cover the entire display window. It is viewed by thousands of people daily. No criticism is attached to those people who cannot afford to buy bonds, but the Liberty Loan Committee hopes that at the end of the campaign there will not be any names of persons missing who can afford to buy bonds The committee wants Alexandria to be 100 per cent partiotic in this great call to the nation for moral as well as financial support.

The total bond sales up to this morning were $265,000, or only $19,000 short of the allotment set by the Government. By evening it is believed that the entire allotment will be sold, and Alexandria will have the right to fly the Honor Flag of the Treasury Department.

How far Alexandria will go over the allotment is now the question. If the sales continue as they have the last day or two, the $400,000 mark is a certainty, and Alexandria would hold a glorious place in the Virginia Roll of Honor.

The county also expects to make a great showing. The county and city are a unit and the total will go on the records as one. The county's allotment is $20,000 and the sales as reported by the county chairman, E. Wade Ball, up to Thursday were $26,000.

The Liberty Loan campaign closes a week from today. Next week should be the big week of the campaign, and every man, woman and child in the city that can buy a bond by paying for it with cash or out of future savings should do so.

The Liberty Loan Committee and a number of other citizens will go to Camp Humphrey's this afternoon and sell bonds to the working men there. They also go out tomorrow afternoon in order to attend the flag-raising services at the camp.

TO RESIST GERMANS

Trotzky Goes to Finland Coast to Organize Forces of Russians.

London, April 27. — It is reported here that Leon Trotzky, the bolshevik minister of war and marine, has gone to Murmansk, northern Finland, to arrange for an effort by the Russian forces there to resist the German attempt to push northward.

Good feeling between the entente allies and the Russians is reported to be increasing in Petrograd and Moscow. Sentiment is said to be violently anti-German, and the attitude toward the allies is declared to vary from suspicion of the Japanese to a friendly attitude toward the French and English and the warmest friendliness toward the United States.

Washington, April 27.—The requisitions made by the Austro-Germans in Ukrainia are so severe the peasants are revolting and are holding soldiers as prisoners. Clashes are occurring frequently, said a diplomatic dispatch, and many persons have been killed on both sides.

WORKMEN RESTIVE.

More Than 250,000 Austrians Gather to Voice Dissatisfaction.

Washington, April 27.—Labor troubles continue in Hungary. A dispatch from Switzerland yesterday said that in Budapest on April 22 more than 50,000 workmen gathered in a protest in different parts of the city and adopted a resolution, which the censor did not allow to be published in its entirety. The men expressed irritation and bitterness over conditions and decided to use every means, including illegal measures, of necessary, to overturn the government, which does not satisfy the workingmen's claims for electoral reform.

WORK OF THE POLICE

Attorney General Gregory Sends Letter of Appreciation to Mayor Thomas A. Fisher, of this City.

The following correspondence will explain itself:

Department of Justice,
Washington, D. C.
April 22, 1918.

To His Honor, the Mayor.

Sir—I have the honor to express to you my appreciation of the effective assistance which you and your Police Department rendered in the recent registration of the male German aliens and to inform you that I am calling upon you again to render through your Police Department a further service to the country in the present emergency in the work of the registration of the female German aliens. This registration is about to be undertaken by the Department of Justice under the President's Proclamation dated April 19, 1918, whereby Regulations 19 and 20 of the President's Proclamation of November 16, 1917, in respect to the registration of male German aliens, are extended to female German aliens by virtue of the authority conferred upon the President by the amendment of Section 4067 United States Revised Statutes by Act of Congress approved April 16, 1918.

The plan of the registration of the German alien women, who are estimated to be about the same in number as the German alien males, will be substantially that followed in the registration of German males. I feel that the registration of such persons in your city can, in this instance as in the registration of the German males, be most effectively and promptly carried out by your Police Department.

The Department of Justice will furnish all the necessary affidavits, cards and other forms, and issue instructions for the work.

I am relying upon your wholehearted co-operation in the performance of this additional service to the country in the war, and I trust to hear from you at your very earliest convenience that you have instructed your Police Department to administer the details of the registration of the German alien women under the general supervision and direction of the Department of Justice.

Respectfully,
T. W. GREGORY,
Attorney General.

Office of the Mayor.
City of Alexandria, Va.
April 25, 1918.

The Attorney General of the United States,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Sir:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Circular No. 816 of April 22, and in reply I beg to advise you of the continued pleasure which our Police Department will derive by still co-operating with the Department of Justice, and the work of obtaining a registration of the female German aliens in this city only awaits your further instructions.

Very respectfully,
THOMAS A. FISHER,
Mayor.

CLARK WILL DECLINE.

Speaker of The House Will Not Accept Missouri Senatorship.

Champ Clark, Speaker of the House, has declined to accept the Missouri Senatorship to succeed the late Senator William J. Stone.

Clark's reason for not accepting, as stated in a telegram to Governor Gardner, was that he believed he could render more service to the country in the Speaker's chair than in the Senate.

"In this awful crisis of our country's affairs—indeed, the whole world's affairs—it is the imperative duty of every man to serve the people and uphold the Government to the best of his ability and in the position where he can do the most good," Clark telegraphed the governor.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 27.—Judge Walter Graves, member of the Missouri supreme court, has been tendered the appointment of United States senator, succeeding the late Senator W. J. Stone.

Gov. Gerdner made public his proffer late yesterday following the declination of Speaker Clark to accept the appointment.

Judge Graves last night told newspaper men that he was undecided and probably would announce his decision today.

ENEMY IS BEING HELD

Germans Say They Are Within Two Miles of Ypres—Claim 6,500 Prisoners.

London, April 27.—"The enemy is held everywhere," Field Marshal Haig announced today.

London, April 27.—The Germans claim to be within two miles of Ypres.

The German war office, in its daily official statement yesterday, declared "That the larger part of St. Eloi and the place itself, were captured." St. Eloi is just two miles directly south of Ypres, on the road from Wytschaete.

In storming Mont Kemmel and the village of Kemmel, the enemy also claims to have progressed to Kemmel Brook, half a mile northward. Allied prisoners taken Thursday were said to total 6,500.

Absolute prohibition of the manufacture or distribution of liquor during the war was proposed in a bill introduced yesterday by Representative Barkley, of Kentucky.

The indictments charging murder contain nine counts each and are directed against the five men who have been under arrest since the coroner's inquest, and seven others, who have not yet been arrested.

AEROPLANE ASSISTS IN CELEBRATION OF "LIBERTY DAY" IN ALEXANDRIA

Aviator Leonard Bonney Distributed Literature as He Flew Over the Crowds While the Parade Passed Through the Streets—Celebration Attracted Large Number of People and was Big Success.

The city of Alexandria celebrated "Liberty Day" yesterday in a most creditable manner. The parade formed an attractive feature, the speeches were excellent and there was a large crowd to see, hear and join in the exercises of the afternoon.

Promptly at 3 o'clock the column started over the line of march, and it was fully 4 o'clock before the word to halt was given in front of the Richmond Theater, where the public meeting was held. President R. L. Payne, of the Chamber of Commerce, called the large audience to order after it had assembled in the theater and introduced Representative Carlin, who presided as chairman. Upon taking the chair Mr. Carlin gave a short but ringing address along patriotic lines, his words eliciting hearty applause.

Senator Claude A. Swanson, who delivered the main speech, paid Alexandria a high compliment for the part it is playing in helping to win the war through its shipbuilding and aeroplane plants and also referred to the various incidents which led up to the entrance of the United States into the great conflict.

Liberty bonds to the amount of $2,500 were sold at the conclusion of the meeting by salesmen who passed around through the audience.

While the parade was passing through King street Aviator Leonard Bonney, of the Briggs Aeroplane Company, flew over the streets dropping Liberty bond literature to the crowds below from a new aeroplane which had just been built at the factory here for the government. It was the first celebration of any kind in which an aeroplane had participated in Alexandria.

Especial mention should be made of the fine appearance made by the school children in the parade; also the Red Cross refreshment corps and the Fire Department, all of whom assisted greatly in making the parade a success.

VOTED TO STRIKE.

Demonstration in Seattle for Thomas J. Mooney, Sentenced to be Hanged.

Seattle, Wash., April 27.—The State central labor council voted early yesterday to call a general strike here for 24 hours May 1, according to official announcement, as a demonstration for Thomas J. Mooney, sentenced to hang in California following his conviction on the charge of murdering one of the victims of the San Francisco preparedness parade bomb explosion.

A proposal to strike for a longer period was voted down, members said because the council did not desire to hamper the government's war work program. A message from the Arizona federation of labor stating that a 24-hour Mooney strike had been called in the southwestern State for May 1 was read at the meeting.

Buy Liberty Bonds.

This is Spring, which is the beginning of life and happiness. Let's spring a surprise on the kaiser, who is the mortal enemy of life and happiness, by oversubscribing the Third Liberty Bond issue.

No American has a right to interfere with production or the destination of products from this country. The resources of the country belong to Liberty. Liberty has the first call upon the manhood and womanhood of the nation, and upon all the products that are needed to STRIKE DOWN and ANNIHILATE the ENEMY.

BUY LIBERTY BONDS.

ARE "OVER THE TOP"

Twenty-Six Cities and Towns in Virginia Have Already Bought Their Quotas of Liberty Bonds.

Twenty-six cities and towns in Virginia have already gone "over the top" in the sale of the Third Liberty Loan bonds and won Honor Flags. Among them are Ashland, Branchville, Bridgewater, Capron, Charlottesville, Chester, Chilhowie, East Stone Gap, Fincastle, Fries, Glamorgan, Kenbridge, Konnarock, Lexington, Lynchburg, Mathews, Purcellville, Rapidan, Remington, Rural Retreat, Stevens, Sugar Grove, Surry, Teas, The Plains and Wyndale.

It is hoped that the city of Alexandria will be able to take her quota "over the top" by tonight.

CABARETS IN BALTIMORE.

New Maryland Law Cuts Off Bottled Goods After 6 o'Clock

Baltimore may soon meet the same fate as fell to the lot of Philadelphia when the United States government, through the Marine Corps, took charge of the policing of the city because of continued and flagrant violation of the regulations against the sale of intoxicating liquors to soldiers and sailors.

Several Department of Justice agents have been especially commissioned by Secretary of the Navy Daniels to make a thorough examination of the conditions as regards selling of intoxicationg liquors to sailors, and have been at work gathering evidence against saloons, hotel and cabarets in the Monumental City for the last week.

Investigation of Philadelphia by the same group of agents immediately preceded the action of the government in placing marines in that city to enforce laws and regulations regarding men in the service.

Secretary Daniels is determined to eliminate such conditions, he has said, and recommendations that many places now selling liquor have license revoked when the report of the investigators now in the city has been received certainly will be made, if more drastic action is not taken.

Beginning next Wednesday, when a new state law goes into effect, all cabarets in Baltimore no longer will be allowed to sell intoxicating liquors and after June 1 even saloons will be allowed to sell liquor only in bottles between 8 o'clock in the morning and 6 o'clock in the evening.

After 6 o'clock none will be allowed to sell any bottles of liquor, though all drinks may be sold at the bar. This law will mean that those of Washington who have to journey from the home hearth here to meet old John in Baltimore and bring back a snifter or two will have to get there and buy that snifter before 6 o'clock or they must come back empty handed, even if not empty otherwise.

PEASANTS SLAY SOLDIERS.

Three Polish Squadrons Annihilated By Ukrainians.

Amsterdam, April 27.—Three squadrons of the Fifth Polish Regiment of Uhlans have been annihilated in Podolia by Ukrainian peasants who refused the soldiers' demands for food supplies, according to a Polish press agency dispatch received by the Dutch press by way of Vienna. The peasants were armed with machine guns and mine throwers.

Sweden Opposes Dry Law.

Stockholm, April 27.—Bone dry prohibition for Sweden is opposed by the excise board, which has sent to the first chamber of the Swedish Parliament a report against the adoption of a course which has not been approved by public opinion.

Prohibition at this time, the board says, would encourage law breaking. Home distillation already has reached great proportion due to war time restrictions, the report says.

"LIBERTY" IN THE AIR.

The Liberty Parade in Alexandria yesterday afternoon was a decided success in every particular. While no massive floats appeared in the procession, nor other features of previous turnouts in Alexandria, an earnestness was manifest which was inspiring. All classes of our people were represented. Members of the business community carrying American flags, were prominent among the paraders, while ladies, members of the Red Cross, and other organizations which are participating in war work, formed part of the cortege. The spirit of the occasion animated the children also, and the pupils of the public schools, white and colored, were out en masse, inspired by the thought of Liberty as were men, women and children in 1776.

Two bands, the Marine band of Quantico and the Indian Guard band, of this city, furnished inspiring music. The streets over which the cortege passed swarmed with people, among them being hundreds of those who have recently become part of our community.

The parade did not pass over as large an area as upon former occasions in Alexandria, and after it had disbanded as many as could entered the Richmond Theater where Senator Swanson and Representative Carlin made thrilling speeches.

The former delivered an eloquent address which was greatly appreciated. He rejoiced with old Alexandria at the business impetus which has recently been given our city.

Mr. Carlin said many things which should be remembered. He was severe upon the Germans for their propaganda in the United States, and said the time had come when spies should be made to face firing squad. This reminds us of a cartoon published in the Gazette on Thursday. The fate of the ill-fated Major John Andre had appeared to a bunch of Teuton conspirators. His observation was brief. "This is not the way they treated such persons in my day."

Mr. Carlin told his hearers that the sun of the German submarine was about to set. He declared they would soon be out of business.

MAKING ITS LAST STRUGGLE.

Hohenzollern is burning up the man power of his Empire at a fearful rate, as a Washington contemporary observes. For the sake of capturing Villers-Bretonneux he carpets the district with his dead, and then he loses the place. Bent upon taking Kemmel Hill at any cost, he sends regiment after regiment against allied guns. The slaughter feed fat on human fodder, which is fed to them so plentifully that the piles of dead reach up to the very muzzles of the guns. In the offensive since March 21 there have been 160 German divisions employed. Many of them have been blasted and amputated; others have been annihilated; others are patched up and thrown again into the furnace, and still others have been withdrawn for reorganization. About 70 divisions remain which have not been used, but many of these are unfit for anything but holding quiet sectors. Evidently British official comment is correct when it says: "Germany must win very quickly" if it is to escape still greater punishment, to be followed by defeat and disaster.

By sacrificing more men than the gains are worth, the German commanders work forward a little. They could not do so if the allied commanders were willing to sacrifice men to hold the ground. But since the ground in no case has been vitally important, it has been yielded after the allied guns and machine guns and rifles have glutted themselves on the enemy.

The swaying of the huge battle back and forth into a village and out of it, or up a hill and down again, is of little significance now. The fact that outweighs all others is that the allied armies have felt the weight of all the forces that the German emperor and his great generals could concentrate upon them and have stood firm. That fact means that Germany's attempt to break out of the trap is a failure. It means that the great allies are gradually and surely reaching the point where they will be able to chose their own time and place for giving Germany the knockout blow. It means not merely that Paris and the Channel will not be taken, but that Germany has passed the peak of power and will never again menace the world. The German imperial power is making its last struggle.

HINDENBURG IN THE BALANCE

During the past few years the people of Germany—that is those who favor the present war—have announced that a heroic statue of Hindenburg will be placed in a prominent place in the Unter den Linden in Berlin. A writer recently suggested that such a statue should be erected in that place to the women of Germany who have given up husbands and sons to be slaughtered upon the field of battle to satisfy the purposes of the German war party. The women may win in this race for a place of honor. They are suffering all sorts of privation while the good work of carnage goes on with no signs of an immediate change for the better. The allies are aroused, so much so that they will listen to no peace overtures save with the defeat of Kaiserism.

Assembling of the reichstag within the next few days has increased the urgency for a quick German victory along the west front, and it is principally to forestall criticism by the members of the reichstag that Von Hindenburg now is trying to force his semi-exhausted troops to a further advance. A firm stand by the allies at this time and the consequent abandonment by Hindenburg of his new offensive undoubtedly will have a profound effect upon the reichstag.

There is no question but that a critical attitude toward the stupendous west front slaughter of Germans has arisen in the reichstag. The territorial gains are coming to be considered wholly inadequate compensation for the heavy casualties by a growing section of German public opinion. Unless Hindenburg, therefore, can conjure up a new victory of stupendous proportions he must submit to increasing criticism at home that will seriously threaten his prestige.

With the failure of the submarines and the failure of the German militarists to foresee what America's part in the war would mean, it is no wonder that most of the reichstag is becoming skeptical of the value of Hindenburg's recovery, at so tremendous a blood cost, of territory which he voluntarily abandoned a year ago. Von Hindenburg's reputation may even now be on the verge of collapse. There is no doubt that his unparalleled prestige at least is beginning to tremble with the halt of the German advance. The reichstag is privileged to ask questions of the government. These questions must grow in embarrassment as long as the allies hold Hindenburg at bay. Every German assault that fails along the west front will be provocation of further unrest among the members of the reichstag in Berlin.

PRICES OF LIQUOR ADVANCE

Along with the general advance in the price of practically every commodity, it is costing the convivial followers of Bacchus considerably more these days to satisfy their thirst. The price of liquor has generally increased, while the quality of the stuff has materially deteriorated, according to those who are in position to know.

Not only is it true that a drink of whisky costs twice as much as before the war, but in some instances the "red eye" is living up to its general reputation as "varnish" and "40-rod." There is no longer a standard price for a drink, as it is said that the man behind the bar in some instances places the costs upon the appearance of the bank roll of the customer. If he thinks the latter will pay 20 cents a smile, that is the price. If he is of the opinion that the thirsty one will pay 30 cents, the bill is fixed at that figure.

Lovers of the brew are also complaining that the glasses are growing smaller, while the quality of the beer is poor.

All of which brings to mind an incident that occurred in a saloon a few days ago and witnessed by an official investigator. It was the general belief that the small "jony" of whisky, little more than a thimbleful, had passed out of existence with the arrival of high prices, but in some places it is still being served, although now the "barkeep" takes the precaution of doling it out himself.

It was formerly the custom to allow the patron to fill his own glass, but of late the old scheme of encircling the top of the glass with a thick index finger, which added half an inch to the capacity, and filling it to the top of the finger has again come into vogue, with the result that the saloonkeepers are playing safety first.

BOYS KILLED BY TRAIN.

In Excitement of Watching Troops Failed to Note Approach of Fast Express.

Philadelphia, April 27.—While waving flags to soldiers in passing trains, yesterday, near Second street and Glenwood avenue, Robert Schweizer, 8 years old, and Dorrio Marquis, 11 years old, stepped backward into the path of an eastbound express train. The boys were struck by the locomotive and their bodies were badly mangled. Frank Reictener, 11 years old, narrowly escaped death. He saved his life by throwing himself to one side of the track when he saw the danger.

Scores of the soldiers saw the boys ground under the wheels.

Dorrio Marquis was one of five children and because a brother was suffering from the mumps he had not been attending school for several days. He had spent the time working near his home and with $5 he had earned he purchased the parts of a bicycle. Yesterday afternoon his father, Charles, decided to put the wheel in running order. Dorrio, Robert Schweizer and several other playmates went to the railroad to watch the trains pass. The two boys were waving flags at passengers speeding by in an express train and it is believed the noise of the cars prevented them hearing the approach of the eastbound express.

JOINS EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Pershing Confirmed in Paris by Bishop Brent, Says Church Paper.

New York, April 27.—Gen. Pershing was confirmed in the communion of the Protestant Episcopal Church recently according to the Living Church, a weekly of that faith, published in Milwaukee.

The Living Church states that at the recent session of the house of bishops in this city it was announced the confirmation service was conducted in Paris by the Right Rev. Charles H. Brent, bishop of western New York. The house of bishops by rule always meets behind closed doors.

"Whereupon the house of bishops, in recognition of his soldierly and religious qualities, sent a cable message of felicitation and encouragement to Gen. Pershing," adds the Living Church.

Gen. Pershing is understood to have been a Presbyterian and to have been led to enter the Episcopal church by the fact that his late wife was of that communion.

CALLS KILLING ACCIDENT.

Husband on Trial for Wife Murder Tells of Struggle for Gun.

Chambersburg, Paa., April 27.—The murder trial of John H. Monn, of Waynesboro, who shot his wife to death in their boarding house on March 2, closed March 27. Monn swore that his wife and he had a quarrel and she ran to get a double barreled shot gun standing in the dining room. He also ran for the gun, both caught hold of it at once and a cartridge was exploded, the load striking her.

She fell and he threw the gun down and the second load exploded and hit him as he lay in the dining room. Then somebody other than himself cut his throat from ear to ear. He said he did not know who did it. He said he had laid out five mercury tablets to commit suicide, but changed his mind and decided to go away with his son. Then the shooting followed.

HUNS WOUND SELVES

The Hague, April 27.—In view of the fact that the Germans are trying to create the impression that American troops at the front lack courage, and that some have committed suicide to avoid going into the trenches, interesting testimony is given by a traveler, who has seen Red Cross trains passing through Aachen from the great offensive. He states that hundreds of German soldiers have been wounded in the left hand, and that these wounds seem to have been self-inflicted with rifles in order that they may not have to go to the front.

The traveler says that there are 8,000 to 10,000 wounded men in Aachen and that 500 or 600 pass through daily.

BOY'S AUTO KILLS WOMAN

Run Down as She Crosses Street by 14-Year-Old Lad.

Philadelphia, April 27.—Mrs. Martha Moetre, of 48 North Dearborn street, was struck by an automobile, while crossing Fiftieth street, near Race, last night, and received a fractured skull, which resulted in her death as she was being taken to the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital.

The car was driven by a 14-year-old boy, James Clayton Matthias, of Fiftieth street, below Race. He was arrested and taken to the House of Detention, where he will be given a hearing this morning.

CRISIS IS PASSED.

Latest Advices Indicate Germans Will Not Compromise Holland's Neutrality.

Officials of the Netherlands' Embassy yesterday stated that late advices indicate the passing of the crisis believed to have been created by the failure of the German and Dutch diplomats to adjust trade differences. It was asserted that there is slight possibility of a break in diplomatic relations, a step which would presage hostilities.

Although no explanation has been made by the Dutch diplomats of the sudden journey of the Dutch Ambassador from Berlin to The Hague, it was indicated that the move cannot be considered as a step toward severed diplimatic relations. One of the officials said, "With the passing of every hour the hope increases that the diplomatic conversations are of a nature that preclude the possibility of war.

"It is true that the war has brought many diplomatic surprises, but there now appears to be slight reason to anticipate a rupture between the two countries. In view of the nature of circumstances surrounding the differences under disclussion, no one can conjecture as to the outcome of the situation. However, it is felt that if there has been any strain in the relations between the Netherlands and Germany, the so-called crisis apparently is past."

Officials of the State Department said that information which would throw any light on the course which the German and Netherlands negotiations may be taking has not been received here.

It is understood that American diplomats discredit rumors that the dispute over the right of Germany to ship supplies through the Netherlands seriously endangers the neutrality of the smaller nation.

CRISIS IN AUSTRIA.

Premier Von Seydler Will Be Compelled to Resign.

Zurich, April 27.—Premier Von Seydler of Austria will be compelled either to resign or dissolve the chamber of deputies, according to information received here from the frontier.

It was stated that the Austrian socialists, the Slav party, and other political factions would refuse to support the Von Seydler government.

People With Full Stomachs Are Starving Every Day

Starvation is not always caused by lack of food; it's more often caused by lack of the right kind of food.

An awful lot of babies die every year and it's probably safe to say that most of them die because of what is put into their stomachs.

If a baby did not have to have milk, no mother, human or animal, would give it.

Milk is the one perfect food for a baby and a baby's food requirements are greater than those of a grown person. After you're grown, you eat to supply "fuel" to your system and to replace tissue used up by your work.

But a baby must get from its food not only "fuel" to keep it warm, but also material from which to form bone, teeth, and muscle.

A baby must have milk, but it must be good, pure, clean milk to make it grow.

That's the kind we produce at Featherstone.

Have you asked us for a free sample yet?

GUNMEN SHOOT DOWN TWO

Enter Boarding House and Open Fire on Proprietor.

Thomas, W. Va., April 27.—The authorities are investigating the murder of Philip Desmon and Peter Berceloni, of Weaver, W. Va., at the boarding house run by Desmon at Pierce. Last Thursday night five unknown men entered the house and the leader with "Hello, Philip!" extended his hand. This apparently was a signal for the gang to begin pumping lead. Desmon ran and succeeded in getting half way up the stairs to the second floor when he dropped dead with eight bullets in his body. Berceloni was shot to death in the doorway. Of the other four in the room two were slightly wounded, one seriously, and the fourth threw himself behind a chair in the corner and escaped injury. Berceloni was a merchant of Weaver. All the men were miners except Berceloni. The identity of the men that made the attack has not been discovered.

WAR TIN FACTORY BURNS.

Loss of $500,000 Blamed on Enemy Action.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 27.—Fire declared to be of enemy origin destroyed early yesterday the tin factory of Trethaway Brothers, at Parsons, Pa., near here. The concern was engaged on war contracts. The loss exceeds $500,000.

Officials say the danger of fire was minimized by an order that required the pulling of all electric switches at the closing hour. Watchmen made several trips through the factory during the night. The flames started in the shipping room.

The owners and employes unhesitatingly declare their belief that German agents were responsible for the burning of the factory.

RAID IN THE ADRIATIC.

Austrians Report Italian Vessel Badly Damaged in Otranto Strait.

Vienna, April 27.—An official communication issued yesterday says:

"On the night of April 22-23 a detachment of our destroyers advanced in the southern Adriatic against the Straits of Otranto. In the artillery battle which followed with the enemy's light forces an enemy destroyer was seriously damaged. Our units returned without damage or losses."

ANOTHER ALEXANDRIA CASE

It Proves That There's a Way Out for Many Suffering Alexandria Folks.

Just another report of a case in Alexandria. Another typical case. Kidney ailments relieved in Alexandria with Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. L. C. Nalls, 540 S. Patrick St., Alexandria, says: "I could hardly get about the house my back felt so weak and sore. When I got down it was almost impossible for me to straighten up. I couldn't rest after I went to bed, my back ached so badly and mornings I could hardly dress myself. I felt weak and tired and my kidneys acted irregularly. My head ached, too. I got my first box of Doan's Kidney Pills at C. W. Summer's Drug Store and they did me so much good that I got another box. After I had finished that my back stopped aching and my kidneys haven't caused me any trouble since."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Nalls had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SUGAR RATION PLANNED.

Confectioners And Other Manufacturers To Be Given Limited Allowance.

Washington, April 27.—Rationing of confectioners and manufacturers using sugar is coming soon, it was learned yesterday.

This step, to follow closely the sugar card, or certificate for housewives, is believed necessary to provide sugar for the canning season about to begin.

Over 1,680,000 tons of sugar are used every year for canning fruit and vegetables, sugar experts declare. All except 30,000 tons of this is used by housewives in the millions of American kitchens.

Hoover's sugar card, while not so drastic as those issued in Europe, pledges householders buying sugar on the card to use it only for canning and preserving. Surplus sugar must be returned. A model form has been sent to all State Food Administrators, who will distribute cards to retailers. Customers are allowed to buy sugar in any amount on their pledge, which is filed with the State Food Administrator.

Rationing of confectioners, manufacturers of soft drinks and other large sugar users dovetails with the whole war program of the nation reflected in the Fuel Administration's announcement today that commercial greenhouses must cut their coal consumption 50 per cent. Wealthy estates must reduce coal used in their luxurious hothouses also.

Private yachts are to suffer an equal cut. Passenger car manufacture,it is indicated, may be cut down to 25 per cent of the 1917 output. Frills on men's clothing, curtailment of talking machine manufacture and the introduction of the liberty shoe are others of the scores of revolutionary changes either effected or in contemplation which will change pre-war industrial conditions.

While details of the sugar rationing of large consumers cannot be revealed at this time, it can be stated that the Food Administration hopes to restore candy makers and others to full sugar supply as soon as the canning season is over.

Shipping shortage is cutting off considerably from the Cuban importation. Food Administration officials are counting on 250,000 tons of Cuban sugar a month for the 10-month period which began March 1. Shipments fell behind this program for March, but the Shipping Board has arranged for extra tonnage to enable shipments to catch up. Over 50 per cent of the American sugar supply comes from Cuba.

Manufacturers consume about two-fifths of the 4,400,000 tons of the total American consumption. With the exception of the 30,000 tons used in canneries, this is all put into candy, sweet drinks and other less essential products.

RUSS OFFER TO FIGHT.

Stripped of Rank, Robbed and Menaced by Their Men, They Would Serve Democracy.

Possibly none of the many tragedies which have befallen Russia in the past year is more pitiful than the plight of the patriotic and loyal officers of what was once the Russian army. Stripped of their rank, robbed of their resources, in danger from their own men, yet unfit for anything save the military career to which they have turned their lives, thousands of these officers remain loyal to the allied cause.

Many of them, in the last few months, have arrived in Yokohama from Harbin and Vladivostok on their way to America, where they hoped to gain admittance to the forces serving under the Stars and Stripes. Others, having dodged the searching Red Guards, slip into the ports of the China coast, remove their disguise and with the money they have realized from the sale of their personal belongings, attempt to get passage through Suez to Italy or France, where they believe they can be of service to the allies.

Not a day passes but what these patriots may be seen in the streets of Yokohama, some in their frayed uniforms, others in soiled civilian clothes. They generally journey to Tokyo for an interview with the American military attache, who, however, is not able to promise them a great deal. Some, who speak French, are offered encouragement in obtaining positions as interpreters, others, particularly aviators, are told the United States may employ them as instructors.

According to the reports brought here, hundreds of these officers are in Vladivostok awaiting a chance to get away, in the interior there are thousands more who would come if they could and there are generals who would accept any post in the American army, but in Russia they are watched, persecuted, reduced to the rank of privates and allowed a private's pay.

EXPLOSION IN BIG PLANT.

Firemen Killed and Eleven Employes Injured When Faulty Boiler Blows Up.

Baltimore, April 27.—One man was killed, eleven men and girls were injured, some seriously, in an explosion at the plant of the Mount Vernon-Woodberry Mills, Inc., here late yesterday afternoon. More than 600 girls were employed at the time of the explosion and a panic followed the blast.

The explosion occurred in the boiler room of the lower mill, known as mill No. 1, on the south side of Jones Falls, across from Druid Hill Park.

The force of the explosion was so great that it demolished the boiler room and part of one of the big boiler and portions of the wall of the building were hurled across the falls, a distance of more than 100 feet. The boiler part and debris landed on an embankment near the tracks of the Northern Central Railway.

Many of the six hundred girls employed in the mill proper fainted, and had to be carried out of the building.

The explosion is believed to have been caused by excess pressure on boiler No. 3. It is said that this boiler was the first affected and that two others also exploded.

JEALOUSY ENDS TWO LIVES

Crazed Husband Shoots Wife and Himself in Busy Factory.

York, Pa., April 27.—Crazed by jealousy because he believed his wife permitted other men to pay attention to her, Norman Sylvester Spangler, 22 years old, shot and killed his bride of a few months and when Chief of Police Buttorff attempted to arrest him ended his own life by sending a bullet through his heart. Before shooting himself he fired four shots at Chief Buttorff and Patrolman Stayman as they rushed into the C. H. Plitt cigar factory, where the double tragedy occurred.

Mrs. Spangler was shot as she sat at her bench, four bullets entering her back. Fifty other employes of the factory became panic-stricken as Spangler stood over her with the smoking revolver in his hand. He calmly reloaded the empty chambers and waited for the police he had been told were notified.

NOOSE CHANGES HIS MIND.

Defiant Loan Slacker Nearly Hanged By Fellow Workmen.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 27.—Edmond Harris, employed at the No. 1 colliery of the Susquehanna Coal Company refused to subscribe for a Liberty LoaneKV-gham lth mthord Liberty Bond yesterday, when the colliery committee called on him. He refused to listen to pleadings, and also to threats.

Thereupon a score of men procured a rope, placed a noose about his neck and led and dragged him to the timber yard, where the rope was pulled over timber several feet above his head. Tightening the rope so that he was forced to stand on the tips of his toes, Harris was asked whether he had changed his mind. He faintly declared that he had, and that he would buy a bond. He was released and will be be given opportunity to keep his promise.

150 Jemish Women Killed

Moscow, April 27. —Each day brings new reports of massacres of Jews as the pogrom wave sweeps Russia. The latest relates to the Glukoff massacres, in which more than 150 Jewish women and children were murdered and violated. The atrocities surpass the horrors of the massacres in Kishineff, Kieff, Odessa, Kherson, Turkestan, Koudonoff, Gerodok, Volochin, Kletz, Roadonovitch, Stolbtsi, Rakovien, and other districts.

Appeals from the Bolshevik council have failed to put an end to these outrages. The council adopted a resolution which, in part, said:

"It is a debt of honor of the Russian revolutionists to combat the Jewish pogroms and show that there is no room for the pogrom in Soviet Russia. All must come in defense of an innocent people attacked by pogromcists."

STRAY BULLET KILLS BOY

Hit by Missile Fired by Man Hunting Birds With a Rifle.

Chester, Pa., April 27.—Joseph Nangle, 12 years old, was shot tonight on Fourth street, near Ridley river, by Morris Maitland, of 131 East Ninth street, and died 30 minutes later in Chester Hospital from a hemorrhage of the lungs. Maitland presented himself at City Hall and surrendered to the police. He claimed the shooting to have been accidental.

According to the story he told the police, Maitland was in a canoe on Ridley river and was shooting at birds with his rifle. A bullet strayed from its course to where Nangle was playing with a crowd of boys. The dead boy was the son of one of the most prominent families in the eastern section of the city.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work.

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui. . .

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today. NC-134

FOLLOWING FALSE GODS

By S. STANWOOD MENKEN,
President of the National Security League.

S. Stanwood Menken

Just as the test of the individual is best found under the stress of great trial or play of passion, so nations prove themselves in time of war and are able to judge, not alone of the qualities of which their peoples are composed, but also the measure of confidence which should be placed in their leaders.

It has been said that Americans don't have to prove that they are the "greatest people on earth" for they admit it; and yet, when we look back over our history and consider how we have met great problems—such as slavery, by a great war; tariff, by fourteen bills and a like number of panics; conservation, currency, banking, anti-trust and railroad questions, by making the same matters of politics—it may be doubted whether we are quite as great as we think we are.

In considering how we exercise our judgment, we should remember the extent to which we have devoted ourselves to the education of the young and the large sums we have spent at all times for public schools and for colleges. When we look back and see the mistakes we have made, it would almost appear as if we had failed to apply much that had been taught us in school and college, or that perhaps the school and college had not taught us how to solve great political measures. Then, again, the thought comes to us of whether or not we have not had false leaders, and have not clung to false gods.

Corporation Wrongs.

We all remember the outcry against vested interests of the capitalists. There have been great wrongs done by many corporations—some of their franchises have been obtained by corruption and theft and great injuries have often been done to the rights of the people; and so, when we found times hard and things going wrong, we have vented our anger upon corporations and upon the capitalists who controlled them. In many cases we allowed ourselves to become angry with a class or with certain individuals and expended our strength on our temper, rather than upon a study of the cure of the conditions about which we complained; and in many instances we punished corporations for the wrongs of their predecessors in ownership, much as sins of parents are visited upon their children.

Demagogues, knowing the public mood, appealed to prejudice and ignorance in discussing public matters and made issues like currency, anti-trust laws and the railroads political footballs, just as if the question of whether money could be saved by joining together companies and providing for economy in purchases and sales was political. Of course it was a matter of economics (which is the science of commerce). Such matters call for a conference between representatives of farmers, laborers, scientific students of world conditions, and manufacturers and purchasers of goods, to consider and determine how goods can be produced with a fair wage to the employee, a fair profit to the employer and the maximum benefit to the public.

Future Problems.

In Europe they have taken these questions up in this careful way and the result has been of great benefit. Now, and in the future, America will have to deal with countries that are short of resources through the exhaustion of war and have, of necessity, to get down to rock-bottom. The thrifty, intelligent, industrious European is apt to be a good merchant, and we are going to have a hard time competing with him for commerce and for world position, so we must consider all of our problems more carefully than ever before and cast aside those men who attempt to lead us away from a thoughtful, dispassionate view of great questions.

Graft and neglect in local communities of political duties by the average citizen are responsible for the misgovernment that breeds disrespect, where we should have pride because of the efficiency of our people. The first concern of the citizen in every community must be to see that it is governed in a way that will assure the approval of clean thinking men and women. The mechanics governing a city require the same kind of clear thought and careful work as that given to shop work or farm planning, and every good American must feel that at this time there is nothing more worth while.

If we do these things well, we will not have to worry about the foreign-born loving America, because living conditions here will be so excellent that they simply cannot help it, especially when they are given not alone good government and healthy conditions surrounding home and work shop, but also education, opportunity and a charter of liberties which will mean happiness to them, if we perform our duties as citizens.

Mothers are proud of their soldier boys and happy to see them go on their country's great mission—that has always been the spirit of the American mother. But that her boy shall be surrounded by the right influences, morally as well as physically, every step of the way to the front makes her doubly willing to sacrifice. It is within your power to aid by contributing to a really wonderful fund whose privilege it is to provide those recreations and camp community movements which provide almost parental love and consideration, no matter where the camp or cantonment may be.
